

We, Jewish and non-Jewish Intellectuals Stand in Solidarity with the Netanyahu Government to free the hostages and destroy Hamas.

Faced with the paradigm of horror that was the genocidal massacres perpetrated by Hamas and its sympathizers, accompanied by a mob of looters, many of us naively thought that the solidarity of Jewish media intellectuals, who nevertheless claim to be attached to Israel, would express itself in unison in support of the Hebrew state.

We were wrong.

Having certainly assimilated, as anti-Semites do, the idea that "solidarity between Jews" would be pejorative, a number of Jewish personalities in France preferred to shoot the "Israeli ambulance" and express indignation at civilian casualties in Gaza, without ever questioning the figures put forward by Hamas, or its use of civilians as shields.

Preferring to reiterate their principled position in favor of a Palestinian state, without ever questioning the fact that neither the "Palestinian Authority", nor its constituent movements, nor the Arab parties in Israel have condemned Hamas<sup>1</sup>, these Court Jews have become its allies.

As for us, we'll never forget that on October 7, 2023, it was party time in Gaza!

Paradoxically, by publicly displaying their distance from the stereotype of Jews "sticking together", they are, in fact, perpetuating another anti-Semitic stereotype, that of the opportunistic Jew defending above all his "interest", his professional career and his media notoriety.

To do so, they had to find a scapegoat (an ancestral technique of the anti-Semites), and they found one: Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his government. In this, these French Jewish personalities believe they can, with the American recipes of the so-called "color revolutions" (Yugoslavia, Georgia, Ukraine, Kirghizia, Egypt, etc.), pull off a coup in Israel. What contempt for the vibrant Israeli democracy! What unacceptable interference on the part of these super bobos, disregarding the will of the people of Israel, who voted democratically for the government currently in power in Jerusalem and who demand that it keep its promises: to totally annihilate Hamas and Islamic Jihad.

These movements are the equivalent of El Qaeda and ISIS, and Tsalal's fire can only cease once they have been eradicated. War by definition is dirty, but once again it has been imposed on the Jewish state by Islamist barbarians, terrorists, sexual mutilators, pedophile rapists, necrophiliacs and hostage-takers, including of babies!

Hamas's hyper-hyped civilian casualty figures bear no relation to reality, as demonstrated by American statistician Abraham Wyner, Professor at the University of Pennsylvania<sup>2</sup>.

And rather than joining the chorus of weepers who repeat them, this areopagus of Jewish intellectuals, ill at ease in their own skin and concerned only with being accepted, should be proclaiming their pride in the IDF. This army is in the process of achieving what no army in the world has been able to do, according to the American General David Petraeus<sup>3</sup> and this, in a densely populated urban context, while Hamas is still holding 134 hostages: lowering the ratio of civilians to combatants killed to 4/3. Until then, the 9:1 average of all past wars had only been lowered to 3:1 in Iraq against ISIS (Daesh).

Rather than join the hallali, be proud to belong to a people who, in the midst of a sea of dictatorships and despite the need for a powerful army to face a war lasting over a hundred years, have built the only democracy in the Middle East.

Instead of howling with the wolves, howl for the unconditional release of ALL hostages!

Demand that their portraits cover the facades of every town hall in your country!

Hold the Red Cross and Unicef to account!

Demand the resignation of the UN Secretary General, whose authority covers UNRWA, the "refugee" organization that is the main employer of Hamas insiders in Gaza!

Demand that the "European Community" stop funding this organization, whose schools are breeding grounds for anti-Jewish hatred!

Denounce the infamous remarks made by the head of European diplomacy, Josep Borrell, accusing Israel of being a camel state, while hundreds of truckloads of food pass through Israel every day on their way to Gaza!

Denounce these primary anti-Semites who are the former heads of French diplomacy, accusing Israel of "poisoning wells and shooting kids" for a Védérine, and of "committing genocide" for a De Villepin, in the pay of his friends in Qatar, the state-sponsor of Hamas!

And be indignant at the comments of another token Jew, Judith Butler, who likens Hamas to "resistance fighters"!

In short, stop disgracing yourselves before the tribunal of History, as useful idiots of "Palestinianism" and of information that has lost all credibility. This pseudo-credibility is only maintained by the grace of state subsidies and an entertainment industry to whom you are false idols. They'll get rid of you as soon as it becomes clear that you represent no one but yourselves.

Now there's something to be said for the right to flaunt one's "Jewish" credentials to the mainstream media. Not stage Jews, nor court Jews. Just Jews.
